

Time for a career change?

We're hiring tow truck drivers.

People are at the heart of our business and right now, we're looking for new team members to join our tow truck driver crew.

As a tow truck driver, you'll provide a range of emergency roadside assistance, specialist towing, transportation and mobility services to members when they need it most. Never driven a tow truck before? No worries. We'll provide full training and support.

Be part of a trusted team that's been serving Australians for over 100 years — where you can make a real difference every day.

Find out more and apply today

